AZIZ DIALLO IS APPOINTED GENERAL MANAGER OF PAY TV FRENCH-SPEAKING AFRICA

Aziz Diallo is appointed General Manager of Pay TV French-speaking Africa. He reports to David Mignot, Managing Director of CANAL+ Africa.

Aziz DIALLO is a graduate engineer from the Institut National Polytechnique of Yamoussoukro and holder of a master's degree in strategic management from HEC. He began his career in 2004 with Alcatel in the international sales department. In 2007, he joined Greenwich Consulting as a senior consultant, before joining MTN, Africa's leading telecom operator, two years later as Senior Manager, West and Central Africa Operations. In 2014, he became Managing Director of CANAL+ Mali, then of CANAL+ Côte d'Ivoire, in 2017.

David Mignot, Managing Director of CANAL+ Africa says: "Aziz has successfully contributed to the group's activities first in Mali and then in Côte d'Ivoire, which has become the 3rd most important country for CANAL+. I am convinced that his leadership, his strong expertise in African markets, and the roles he has held within our subsidiaries will be key to supporting the CANAL+ group's ambitions on the continent".
