DOMINIQUE JUBIN APPOINTED HEAD OF FRENCH DRAMA - CINÉ+ OCS

Dominique Jubin has been appointed Head of French Drama - CINÉ+ OCS. She has been Managing Director of the STUDIOCANAL ORIGINAL production unit since 2018 and will take up her new position from July 1, 2024. As such, her mission will be to continue and develop the range of series on CINÉ+ OCS. Dominique Jubin will report to Olivier Bibas, Head of CANAL+ Création Originale.

Olivier Bibas, Head of CANAL+ Création Originale, comments: “I’m delighted to hand over this new responsibility to Dominique Jubin. Her proven experience will be an important asset in maintaining and renewing drama on CINÉ+ OCS. I wish her every success in her new position.”

Dominique Jubin is graduated from La FEMIS' script department. For 10 years, she was the Deputy Director of French TV series and international co-productions for the CANAL+ Création Originale division. In 2016, Dominique was promoted to Artistic Director for STUDIOCANAL TV's series department. Through her missions, Dominique collaborated closely with STUDIOCANAL's European production companies, and enhanced its international TV series line-up through the development of premium TV series. In 2018, Dominique was appointed Managing Director of STUDIOCANAL ORIGINAL, the new French TV series production division founded by STUDIOCANAL. She developed and produced for CANAL+'s Création Originale and Création Décalée the series MOUCHE by Jeanne Herry, ABOUT LAST NIGHT... by Matthieu Longatte, NINE WOMEN and NINE MEN by Emma de Caunes, as well as DANS 5 ANS with Hakim Jemili.
